Make This Christmas Extra Special With Guylian

Christmas without plenty of everyone's favourite chocolate to go round just wouldn't be Christmas at all and Guylian, the world's favourite Belgian chocolates, is a festive season must. Whether you want to spoil someone, treat yourself or simply make any seasonal gathering go with a swing, Guylian chocolates have the answer.

New For 2008!

Make this Christmas extra special with the newest addition to the Guylian family, Guylian Extra Sea Shells. Filled with Guylian's famous hazelnut praline and covered with fine 70% dark chocolate, a box of these will be sure to make anyone's Christmas.

At the heart of each Extra Sea Shell is Guylian's world-famous hazelnut praline, made to a secret recipe by Guylian's Master Chocolatiers. Only the finest, hand selected Mediterranean hazelnuts are roasted and caramelised, before being blended with Acticoa™ cocoa. Striking the perfect balance between velvety dark chocolate and smooth praline, each Extra sea shell is a taste sensation.

Just two sea shells provide 60 per cent of the amount of antioxidants recommended for a healthy lifestyle. These new sea shells are available in 125g boxes from Waitrose (rrp £2.29) and Sainsbury's and in a 250g box from Tesco (rrp £4.49).
